Biography

David Ponzetti

Dave Ponzetti and his wife Dolores sought a change from the flatlands of Illinois and responded to the calling of Arizona, they are now comfortably settled in as 7 year residents of Cottonwood. A dedicated husband of 32 years with 4 grandchildren, Dave still finds the time to give to others; he's involved with R.A.D. (re-thinking alcohol and drugs) a youth probation program for first time offenders, and the Success for Teen program, helping the youth of America develop leadership skills for the future. Dave's other devotion is to the truthful promotion of identity theft in America today and its effect on our economy.

Salvatore Tardio (Sam)

Sam Tardio, and his wife Linda are 13 year residents of beautiful Sedona, Arizona. He's a devoted husband of 40 years with 5 grandchildren and his favorite pastime is being onstage performing as a vocalist. Sam chose to semi-retire from the Chicago area from a steel construction company he started 21 years before. After meeting Dave through a mutual Illinois friend he enrolled as a member of the PPL family. A staunch believer of the entrepreneurial lifestyle Sam saw the opportunity that PPL offered and he also became an independent associate.

Dave and Sam recognized that their personal friendship was also well suited professionally. Together their combined knowledge offers their audiences the best assistance possible. They have been working as a team for many months now and they look forward to making their presentation to your group, providing important information and answering your questions, all in the most professional manner
